“Love Your Neighbor” is something most of us have heard throughout the course of our lifetimes. In fact, it may be something we’ve heard so often it’s become a little cliché and overlooked – especially in application and implantation. When Jesus said, “love your neighbor” what did he mean and how can we do it?

READ LUKE 10:25-37

- What have you seen or experienced that has made you want to abandon “love your neighbor”?
- What was the obvious need for the Jewish man?
- What are some needs you are aware of around you that might be opportunities to “love your neighbor”?
- Why might the priest and temple assistant have chosen to pass by?
- What barriers existed between Jews & Samaritans that kept them from being “loving neighbors”?
- What barriers exist that keep you from wanting to be a “loving neighbor” to someone?
- How can you overcome those barriers?
- In what ways did the Samaritan see the Jewish man as someone with value?
- What are some ways we lose sight of our and others value to God?
- Who is someone around you to whom you can add value?
- Who needs to hear and see you declare, everyone is someone?
- What next step will you take to “love your neighbor”?
