

BLANK PAGES – PART 2: MAKE “WHY’S” DECISIONS SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2022

There is much we could ask for, but perhaps the wisest thing we could ask for is wisdom. Often we ask God to tell us specifically what to do but sometimes, though God is abundantly clear on many things, he leaves the decision up to us. When we face decisions that God leaves up to us, he gives us the wisdom to choose. When we make wise decisions, we live with fewer regrets.

READ 1 CORINTHIANS 16:6-9

- What was Paul uncertain about surrounding his desire to visit the Corinthians?
- What was the “factor” that made Paul comfortable with the “perhaps and possibly” of his plans?
- Are you someone who is more planned or flexible? What challenges does this create for you?
- What are some times when it’s wise to plan (and stick to the plan)?
- What are some times when it’s wise to go with the flow (even in the plan)?

READ JAMES 1:5-6

- When have you needed wisdom?
- Do you agree God generously gives wisdom? Why or why not?
- What kinds of things do we assume God would rebuke us for asking for wisdom?
- Why do you think God does rebuke us for wisdom?
- What does it mean to not waver and have faith in God alone? Why is this so challenging?
- What does an unsettled, tossed-about life look like?
- How does faith in God’s wisdom lead to a settled, stable life (even in challenging circumstances)?

- What next step will you take to ask for and have unwavering faith in God’s wisdom?
